

THE SCHOOL DISTRICT OF MARTIN COUNTY, FLORIDA

Tobacco, Alcohol and Drug Free Agreement
School Sponsored Activities on and off campus

The Martin County School District has a firm tobacco, alcohol and drug free policy. Any form of tobacco, alcoholic beverages, or drugs is not permitted on property owned or controlled by the Martin County School District or at any school-sponsored activity, including activities conducted outside of Martin County. Such activities include, but are not limited to, homecoming events, athletic contests, field trips, overnight trips, prom, powder-puff, grad bash, and graduation commencements. Students and guests attending such activities and events shall be subject to a breath test upon reasonable suspicion.

Any form of profanity is also strictly prohibited. All school and District policies will be enforced at all school sponsored events.

Please be advised that failure to uphold these rules will result in immediate disciplinary action in accordance with the Martin County Student Code of Conduct and Discipline Code.

Please sign below to acknowledge receipt, and return this form to your school's Dean's office/Student Services.
